About

Healthy, Fresh, Homegrown is a brand that helps families grow fresh food at home to support a healthier lifestyle. Teaching organic methods for growing vegetables, fruit and herbs that fits into a busy lifestyle.

Target Audience

My target audience are homeowners in their 30's and 40's with children. They use social media to be inspired to grow food, to learn new gardening skills and to shop for garden supplies and tools.

Services

I am open to sponsored blog posts and videos, paid ads, giveaways and social media collaboration to help you reach your target audience.
